Thank you for agreeing to be a speaker at our upcoming conference – we are honored to host you at this important event. The conference, as you may recall, will be on December 3rd and the morning of December 4th; we will send a draft agenda shortly. Our CME committee will be contacting you, also, with logistical information such as travel, hotel, etc.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions; looking forward to seeing you.

Best,
